About Storage.

If you will store your household effects while away this summer take care that you put them where they will be insured and safe from pillage or fire—where they will not be scratched or broken.

This Company offers excellent storage quarters—fire and burglar-proof, commodious and dry. Its storage warehouse, 1140 15th street, is the finest of its sort ever constructed.

Pianos stored in rooms of even temperature all the year round, $1.50 per month.

Effects moved from one house to another in this city or from one city to another.

Reasonable prices—"expert" and Superintendent Machen's Return.

Supt. Machen of the postal free delivery system, who has been in Chicago for more than a month as chairman of the commission appointed to redistrict the postal service of that city, has returned to Washington. Assistant Superintendent Hill, recently appointed by the Department of Justice commissioner to examine the overtime claims of letter carriers, will leave a few days to examine claims filed in a Memorial Day Observance.

Nathan Bickford, the commander of the Department of the Potomac, G. A. R., has issued an order for the proper observance of Memorial day. "Posts," the order states "are recommended to make arrangements for memorial services on Sunday, May 30, and to attend in a body. All comrades such posts as do not arrange for a special service are requested to attend the morning services."

service at Foundry M. E. Church. Defunct Chaplain Rev. J. D. Smith will have memorial services on Sunday at 3 o'clock in the hall at headquarters, 1412 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, upon the invitation of the memorial committee.
